OUTLINES.

A treaty of peace between Guatemala on one side and Salvador and Honduras on the other, was signed on the United States cruiser Marblehead yesterday; there was considerable disagreement, but finally terms were agreed upon, although they are not known.——The Boston City Council is to consider a resolution to restore to New Orleans a Confederate flag taken from the city hall by Gen. Butler in 1863.——John D. Rockefeller, of the Standard Oil Company, left Paris yesterday and on his arrival in New York will be arrested on a warrant from Findlay Ohio.——Dunn's weekly trade review reports cotton picking in progress; immense wheat harvest and business good.——President Diaz, of Mexico, has summoned the governors of states to the City of Mexico to take steps to suppress a revolutionary movement to drive out Americans, English, French and Germans.——The $30,000,000 Panama Canal bond issue was largely oversubscribed yesterday at from 104.75 to 103.63; among the bidders the National Bank of Fayetteville getting $100,000 at 103.80.——President Roosevelt, Speaker Cannon and other Republican leaders will confer at Oyster Bay on Monday and arrange the programme for the Republican Congressional campaign, the President taking a keen and partisan interest in it.——One of Hartje's lawyers in the Pittsburg divorce case created indignation yesterday in a reference to Pittsburg women; there is a sensational rumor that the two Hartje children are to be kidnapped.——New York Markets: Money on call easy, 2 to 2½ per cent., ruling rate 2¼ to 2½, closing bid 2, offered at 2¼; spot cotton steady, 11 cnts; flour steady, with light trade; wheat easy, No. 2 red, 83⅜ elevator; corn weak, No. 2, 56 elevator; oats easy, mixed, 42½; turpentine steady, 59½ to 60; rosin firm, strained, common to good, $3.85.

Some girls who do not get millionaires on their string have luck.

Keep your political shirt on, even if the political temperature is running a little high.

Says the New Yoak World: "If the North Carolina Republicans are a sample, Secretary Taft is a poor missionary." That's no joke.

People who are fond of giving us a song and dance about "a square deal" should quit "whipping the devil around the stump."

The expectant politician who is not going to New York to give Bryan the glad hand at Madison Square Garden hasn't been heard from yet.

While President Roosevelt got busy with his pitchfork to get his hay in out of the rain, we wonder if the pitchfork reminded him of Senator Tillman.

Philadelphia is having a hard time to enforce its meat inspection ordinance. The Press says the slaughter house men with a political pull defy the orders of the health officials because certain politicians aided them to defeat the law. Still a lot of people think political inspectors will inspect.

Not many years back, as our telltale memory serves us, North Carolina Republicans grew hot in the collar about taking away the rights of the negro to vote whether he was fit to vote for dog-pelter or not. With the negro eliminated from politics (not by Republicans), the Republicans are now trying to burglarize the fixed determination of the Democrats that all white men in North Carolina shall vote.

In his determination and obstinacy in resisting the plea of insanity, Harry Thaw is raising in our minds that reasonable doubt that entitles him to the benefit. After Judge Olcott and his law firm went into all the features of the case and found it so desperate that they concluded that the best chance of defense was a plea of insanity, it strikes us that Harry is crazy not to pretend to be crazy.

Considering the recent announcement that organized labor is going into politics because a Republican Congress ignored the interests of labor, it is significant that President Roosevelt and Secretary Taft should form a combination and come right out in the face of the campaign with a programme to stick the daubin' to everybody who has offended labor by not carrying out the eight-hour law. Even if President Roosevelt is busy putting up his hay, he leans on the hayrake long enough to study politics.

ER-STATE MEET

Wilm... Gun Club Arranging for ...g Tournament Here Last of August.

COMMITTEE IS APPOINTED

Installation of New Trap Took Many to Grounds Yesterday Afternoon. Medal Won by Senator Empie After Tie With Mr. Boushee.

There was an enthusiastic meet of the Wilmington Gun Club at the traps yesterday afternoon for the regular weekly shoot, which was one of the most interesting yet held. The new Leggett machine had been installed and was in perfect working order, so that some exceedingly fine sport was enjoyed. Messrs. J. G. Littig and A. A. Hergenrother were the committee which had in charge the installation of the new trap, and they came in for the profuse thanks of the club for the excellent manner in which they had accomplished their task.

Some good scores were made by the members, and there was a revival of interest in club affairs all along the line. It has now been decided to have the Inter-State tournament here early in September or the last of August, and expert gunners are expected here for the occasion from all over the country. Messrs. George Harriss, A. A. Hergenrother and J. G. Littig have been named as the committee in charge of the tournament and they will begin at once a canvass of the situation to the end that the meet may be made as attractive as possible to all. Cash prizes will be offered and there will be many of them. It is planned to have a two, and possibly a three-day affair of it, the last day probably being taken at one of the beaches. The new trap is regulation and will please the most fastidious. It is hoped to interest the local business men in the enterprise and to have a tourney of really world-wide importance

The weekly shoot yesterday afternoon brought out a much larger attendance than usual, and there was a lively contest for the gold medal offered by the club weekly for the highest score. This week Messrs. Brooke G. Empie and E. Boushee tied for the honor on a score of 23, and in the shoot-off Mr. Empie won with 22.

The following were the scores for the afternoon in events of 25 targets each:

To Handle Lumber Output.

An agreement was filed for record yesterday at the Court House by which J. T. West, of Walker, Va., operating a saw mill, on Sturgeon Creek, on the lands of the Carolina Trucking Development Company, in Brunswick county, agrees with W. T. Sears & Co., of this city, to handle the entire output of the mill on a commission basis. Messrs. Sears & Co., are now not only operating a number of saw mills in the territory of Wilmington on their own account, but are handling the output of several independent mills.

A BOWLING TOURNEY

Handsome Silver Loving Cup Offered by Commodore Metts—Schedule and Rules and Regulations Being Prepared By Committee.

Bowling has become such a favorite amusement with the large membership of the Carolina Yacht Club at Wrightsville Beach that it has been decided to inaugurate next week a tournament with a schedule of games covering the season for a handsome silver loving cup offered by Commodore J. VanB. Metts and for which trophy there promises to be a lively contest The offer of the cup was at a meeting of the Governing Board of the Club Thursday afternoon and it was accepted with gratification and with thanks to the genial Commodore, who has done much for the upbuilding of the Club and the entertainment of its members.

The Governing Board, in order to carry out the wishes of the Commodore in the matter of the trophy, has decided on the tournament and a committee composed of Messrs. R. C. DeRosset, F. W. Dick and C. E. Taylor, Jr., has been appointed to arrange all details of the affair. Any three members of the Club may form a team and are eligible to make entry on or before next Tuesday 24th, when the schedule of games and all rules and regulations governing the contest will be announced by the committee. Entries may be made with the janitor of the Club house or by application to any member of the committee. With the additonal new alleys installed this year, there is fine facilities for the health-giving sport and quite a good deal of interest is expected to centre about the race for the cup ere long.

Already one or two teams have been playing in a tournament but whether the result of these will count in the contest for the cup is yet to be decided by the committee and the decision will be announced when the rules and regulations are made up next week.

H. R. TOWNSEND DEAD.

Former Resident of Fayetteville and With Old C. F. & Y. V.

(Fayetteville Observer, 20th.)

A telegram was received here from Charlotte to-day announcing the death of Mr. H. R. Townsend, a former resident of this city. It is probable that the remains will be brought here for burial.

Mr. Townsend was twice married, his first wife being Miss Marion Sedbery, who died several years ago, leaving three children. His widow was Miss Mattie May Mautlsby, and by this union there was one child.

Mr. Townsend was for years a clerk in the C. F. & Y. V. offices here, and at the time of his death he was agent in Charlotte for a large typewriting company. Mr. Townsend had a number of friends here who will learn of his death with sorrow.

Husband's Unusual Request.

In Justice Bornemann's court yesterday the wife of Hardy Bryant, a well known colored celebrity, swore by all that was good and bad that her husband had maltreated her and had been guilty of the vilest disorder at their house on the day before. She wanted Hardy arrested and wanted him arrested bad. Justice Bornemann was just the man for a domestic row that needed straightening out and Bryant was hauled up in court. The woman could prove absolutely nothing against him and she was taxed up with the cost of what was adjudged a malicious and frivolous prosecution. She couldn't pay and was about to go to jail when the husband came in and said he would pay the cost for the wife upon one conditon. That was that she would go away from him and never come around again. The woman promised and the man paid up the money. They both left in different directions.

Red Men to Carolina Beach.

Red Men of the city will journey on next Thursday to Carolina Beach, it being the occasion of their annual excursion to that reservation of the Cape Fear. There will be a war dance, the sensational capture of a pale face and his scalping in full view of the hosts assembled. Squaws, papooses and all other friends from the Wilmington precincts will be welcomed and assured of a day of pleasure and amusement. There will be music for the war dance and any other dances that may be on the programme.

THE NORRIS TRIAL

Sensational Case at Raleigh Went to Jury After Judge's Charge Last Night.

NO VERDICT AT MIDNIGHT

Drowning of Charlotte Young Man at Chimney Rock—Bell Telephone Hearing Continues—Wake Forest Trustees in Session.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., July 20.—The charge by Judge Webb to the jury in the trial of M. T. Norris, a prominent merchant, on the charge of burning a farmhouse owned by his wife in order that she could collect $500 insurance, was concluded at 10:10 o'clock tonight and the jury retired at once to make up its verdict. At midnight they had retired for the night. All except two live a considerable ditsance in the country. A verdict of not guilty is generally expected in the morning.

News has just reached here of a sad and untimely drowning at Chimney Rock, this morning, in which Mr. S. A. Brissle, of Charlotte, was the victim. Mr. Brissie, accompanied by two other Charlotte gentlemen, the names of whom are unknown, were visiting the bottomless pools, near the Logan House, when the unfortunate young man accidentally slipped, and fell into the lower pool, and was drowned before help could aid him.

The pool of water is said to be over 300 feet deep, with a strong undercurrent, and Mr Brissie's body was quickly drawn into the depth below. It was after several hours of hard, untiring work by his friends, and others before his body was recovered.

Mr. Brissie was about 23 years of age, and had been at Chimney Rock since Wednesday.

Raleigh, N. C., July 20.—In the telephone hearing before the Corporation Commission to-day the Southern Bell Company submitted statements showing that the exchanges in the State at Raleigh, Greensboro, Hamlet, Davidson, Salisbury, Spencer and Concord are operated at a loss. The largest profit is at Charlotte, $22,883; next is Wilmington, $13,315.38 for last year. The value of exchange and long distance equipment in State in March, 1905, was $990,504, and March, 1906, $1,156,256. The rates of net earnings on average investment in the State was five per cent.

The trustees of Wake Forest College, in annual session to-day, decided to accept the offer of the National Educational Association to contribute $37,500 to the endowment of the college, provided the college raised an additional $12,500 by December, 1907.

Hurt in a Runaway.

While out driving with Mrs. Smith and two children, Hall Officer E. L. Smith, of the police department, was thrown from the buggy at Eighth and Dawson streets Thursday afternoon, suffering a painful wrench of the left wrist. The horse became frightened at something and rearing up, made a sharp turn of the buggy. Mrs. Smith and the children got out safely, but as Mr. Smith was trying to manage the horse and right the buggy, he was thrown. His injury is painful but not serious.

Back From District Conference.

Rev. A. J. Parker, pastor of Bladen Street M. E. church, returned last night from Whitaker's, N. C., where he attended the Warrenton District Conference, representing the interests of Louisburg Female College. Mr. Parker says that the conference was in every way a success and all departments of the church work were shown in excellent condition. Rev. Mr. Parker will occupy his pulpit as usual to-morrow at 11 A. M. and 8 P. M.

Excursion From Enfield.

An excursion from Enfield, N. C., and intermediate points reached the city yesterday afternoon, having been delayed several hours for some cause up the road. The visitors went down to the beach, reaching the city in time to return home early in the night. An excursion of the Sunday Schools of East and West Durham, via Raleigh, will reach here to-day and return to-night.

Prosecutor Paid the Costs.

George Redmond, the negro arrested on Thursday afternoon, charged with an assault with a deadly weapon upon Richard Sheridan, and carrying a concealed weapon, was found not guilty in Justice Furlong's court yesterday and Sheridan, the prosecutor, was taxed with the costs.

HELD UP MILK WAGON

Negro Youth's Wild West Exhibition Brought Him to Grief in Magistrate Court Yesterday—An Interesting and Amusing Trial.

The story of the hold-up of a milk wagon in the streets of Wilmington in broad daylight, the utter rout of the pickanninies in charge, the subsequent occupation of the wagon by the hold-up man and his consumption of a quart of the milk and the despoilation of the rest of the cargo, was like unto a tale of stage-coach and pioneer days in Justice Furlong's court yesterday afternoon, affording no little interest and amusement for a large crowd of spectators who gathered to witness the trial.

The defendant was a colored youth employed at Shepard's drug store and who bears the nó less terrifying sobriquet of "John Thirty." The milk wagon was owned by John Gummer, a well-to-do colored man whose wife runs a dairy and has a delivery wagon for the sale of the product of the establishment. Thursday afternoon the wagon in charge of two small colored boys was passing Second and Ann streets when "John Thirty" ran out and boarded it from the rear. One of the small boys was dealt a severe thrashing while the other saw the trouble, jumped off and ran to cover. "John Thirty" is then alleged to have pitched into the milk, consumed one can of it and put his fingers in the remainder so as to make it unfit for further patrons. When he had accomplished his hold-up, flogged one of the boys and finished up the job in every other respect, he sailed off and the boys recovered their wagon. The owner was apprised of the facts and the indictment followed.

It cost "John Thirty" just $6.20 for his Jesse James stunt when the magistrate was through with him yesterday afternoon. He put up the plea that the boys had been worrying him and denied the story of his having consumed the milk and damaged the rest of it. The amount imposed was paid and "John Thirty" thereby escaped the jail.

HIS CONDITION SERIOUS.

Mr. W. H. McKinnon Removed From Wadesboro to Red Springs.

Wadesboro, July 20.—Mr. M. H. McKinnon, who recently came here to accept a position with the firm of Richardson & Martin, after being dangerously ill at the home of Mrs. C. V. Dunlap, on South Green street, for some time, was taken to the home of his father, Dr. W. H. McKinnon, at Red Springs, this morning. He was accompanied by his father and mother, Dr. and Mrs. W. H. McKinnon, his sister, Miss Mary McKinnon, his brother-in-law, Mr. James McPhail, and his wife and baby.

Pleasant Trip in Store.

Mr. B. F. Keith, Collector of Customs, and his little daughter, Miss Lila Keith, leave this afternoon on the Clyde Liner Carib for New York where they will be met by Mr. B. F. Keith, the well known theatrical manager of Boston, and will accompany him to his elegant country estate "Marblehead," above Boston, where they will be his guests for a week or more. The Messrs. Keith became acquainted several years ago through the exact similarity of their names and a chance acquaintance ripened into a strong friendship. Mr. Keith, of Boston, has visited Mr. Keith, of Wilmington, and lately the last named Mr. Keith was constrained to accept a very urgent invitation for him to bring his daughter and spend a while at Boston. Mr. Keith, of Wilmington, at length consented and it is unnecessary to say that the visit will be one of great pleasure.

Baseball This Afternoon.

At Hilton this afternoon the pennant chasers of the City League will be on the diamond for a couple of games that they are sure will interest the most exacting crank. In the first exhibition the Y. M. C. A. and Monarchs will meet and in the second the top-liner Rattlers and the Market Street Giants. The first game will be called at 3 o'clock sharp and the second at 5 P. M. There is no charge for admission.

ROWDY GEORGIANS

Prominent Young Atlantians Got Gay, on Seaboard Train and Came to Grief.

EJECTED AT LUMBERTON

Were Making Themselves Offensive On Train and Would Not Listen to Conductor's Entreattes to Behave—Arrested in Robeson.

Passengers on the returning trains from up the Carolina Central Railroad yesterday told of sensational disorders committed by two prominent young men from Atlanta, returning from Wrightsville Beach on the afternoon train Thursday. One of the young men was said to have been a son of Senator Clay, of Georgia, and the other a son of a wealthy merchant of Atlanta, named Chamberlain.

A large party of Atlanta and Winders, Ga., people had been at the beach since Sunday, and were occupying a special car back on the Carolina Central train Thursday afternoon. The two young men were among the number and came up from the beach pretty well in liquor. Soon after the train left Wilmington, Capt. W. B. Williams in charge, the young men began to make themselves offensive to a large number of ladies in the party and were reprimanded by Capt. Williams. One of them had a bottle of liquor in one hand and, it is reported, would proffer the other hand to a strange lady whom he would express a desire to meet. The other is reported to have had a murderous looking revolver, which he boasted had done service in the Spanish-American war.

Capt. Williams tried persuasive methods at first, and finally got the young men into a rear car. There it seems they fell out with one another and a fight ensued. Several of the large plate glass windows in the parlor car were broken out and other depredations committed.

Capt. Williams is not a man to stand back on technicalities when such conduct is going on aboard his train, and at Lumberton, the first station reached where there were officers with the proper authority, he had policemen to meet the train and the Atlanta sports were forcibly taken from the cars and detained there until the train had passed.

Parties offered bail in any amount if the young men would be allowed to continue their homeward journey, but these proffers of friends were refused and the young men were detained at Lumberton until yesterday morning, when it is reported they had sobered up and left quietly on the morning train.

Capt. Williams was strongly commended by the large number on the train for his action. The young men were reported to have amused themselves a part of the time by shooting at the chandeliers in the train and out the windows at objects being passed.

LUMBER FOR JAMESTOWN.

Contractor for Exposition Buildings Here Looking After Material.

Mr. R. C. Strehlow, of the firm of Strehlow & Company, general contractors of Omaha, Neb., is in the city from Norfolk, Va., where his firm has the contract for the greater part of the Jamestown Exposition buildings. Mr. Strehlow came primarily for a conference with Mr. W. T. Sears, of W. T. Sears & Co., of this city, who have just entered into contract with the Expositon people for furnishing something like a million and a half feet of lumber for the buildings there. Work on filling the contract will begin at once by Messrs. Sears & Co., from their several mills here and elsewhere.

The firm of R. C. Strehlow & Company did much of the construction work for the St. Louis and Buffalo Expositons and some of the finest buildings on those grounds were of their construction. Mr. Strehlow is enthusiastic in speaking of Jamestown and says that the Expositon will be one of the greatest things for Norfolk that "ever happened."

Insane Negro to Goldsboro.

Deputy Sheriff J. W. Smith will leave this morning, conveying to the State hospital for the colored insane at Goldsboro the negro Lewis, adjudged insane Wednesday afternoon. Lewis was the negro who wanted Dr. Honnet to restore an eye that had been removed in a surgical operation.

NO EXCUSE FOR MOB LAW.

That is startling news from Salisbury that a fund is being raised to send a mob of several hundred men to Charlotte to lynch the several negroes confined in jail there for safekeping, on the charge of being the murderers of the four members of the Lyerly family who were so mercilessly butchered at Barber Junction, 14 miles from Salisbury. The Charlotte jail is a strong structure and Charlotte is a city of probably 30,000 people, so that an assault on a jail in a city of that size would be a hazardous undertaking, indeed if it would not be both foolhardy and fruitless. The Charlotte Observer says the proposition of the Salisbury mob "is hardly to be taken seriously, yet, of course, such a thing is by no means impossible, and the Mecklenburg officials will doubaléss be ready for any emergency."

The emergency will hardly arise at Charlotte but if the mob spirit around Salisbury and in Rowan county is so rampant it will necessary to have a large military force at Salisbury, August 6th, when the prisoners are taken back there for trial. A special term of the Superior Court has been called for that date to try the murderers, and the Observer says: "The guilty will be convicted and sentenced to death in short order, therefore, there is no sort of excuse in this case for resorting to mob law."

Under the title of "No Excuse for Mob Law," the Observer yesterday contained an editorial which is worth repeating. It was as follows:

"The Charleston News and Courier has a thoughtful editorial in its Monday's issue, inspired by the Barber's Junction tragedy of last week. This assassination, it is declared, 'brings home again the fact that the negro race in America is only a little more than two centuries removed from primeval savagery.' This fact, however, 'is no reason why the white race, with its dozen centuries of civilization, should pass into a similar state. In other words, there is no crime, however horrible, that excuses lynch law, either in North Carolina or in Atlantic City, New Jersey. In the latter city an attempt was made to lynch an Italian for an attempt to kidnap a child on the same day that the brutal crime in North Carolina was perpetrated.' This is as true as can be, and the News and Courier is also accurate in its statement to the effect that 'the striking and encouraging feature of the North Carolina event is that the officers of the law were prompt in conveying the negroes accused of the slaughter of the Lyerlys to jail, and even if the danger of lynching has not yet disappeared, there was present where the brutal deeds were committed a healthy disposition that the law take its course.' The awful brutality of such a crime as this is such as to temporarily break down the feeling against lynching usually harbored by the best citizens, which fact is fully taken advantage of by the irresponsible and lawless element which is only too willing to follow leadership of good men on a bad mission. Thus we had the demonstration against the Salisbury jail Saturday night. Removal of the prisoners alone probably saved the lives of all of them, guilty and innocent alike, provided all did not participate in the crime. There is no denying the fact that in case of heinous crimes thoughts of lynching arise more readily than they used to and the best way out of the difficulty is to immediately remove the prisoners to a place of safety. The News and Courier says:

"'The lynching of the Barber's Junction murderers would not be regretted on account of the fate its guilty victims might suffer, but it must not be forgotten that lynchers do not in any case escape retributory justice. The men who kill without the forms of law sow to their own ruin. The community that lynches takes a step backwards. No man who participates in the unlawful taking of human life can do so without degrading himself, and when the act is shared in by a group of persons, each shares and the society in which he moves shares in the degradation. The affair which became public in Laurens county Saturday, while no death has followed it, contains elements even more shocking than that in North Carolina. The lynching of the negro, Kennedy, might naturally have been expected, but again the disposition to uphold the law was present, in Sheriff T. J. Duckett and his deputy, A. R. Sullivan, and it seems that Laurens county has been saved the occurrence of an added horror which could not have improved the situation.'

"'The community that lynches takes a step backward'—that is a truth that cannot be assailed, as is also the fact that lawlessness, be it in the form of lynching or otherwise, begets lawlessness. Therefore, every incident of mob violence is sure to have a bad effect on the community and the State in which it occurs."

It is well enough to create a strong sentiment against mob murder. Certainly a murder (lynching) by the people but adds to the crminal record of a county. It not only does not punish the guilty wretch any more terribly than he would get from a legal execution, but it makes criminals of citizens and adds to the horror of the record. It demoralizes a community and the mob that lynches commits a crime against its own community. Lynchers should realize that they are as much murderers as the murderer whose life they take.

McNEILL'S POEMS.

"Songs Merry and Sad" is a book of poems sent to The Star with the compliments of the author, John Charles McNeil, of Charlotte, and of the publishers, the Stone & Barringer Company, also of that city. It is a neat book and contains fifty-nine poetic gems from the pen of Mr. McNeill, who is a member of the staff of the Charlotte Daily Observer. Most all the poems in the book have appeared in the Century Magazine, the Youth's Companion and the Observer, and it is a fortunate thing that they have been grouped into book form that they can better be preserved and in that shape constitute a lasting and valuable contribution to North Carolina literature.

It is a matter of great gratification and a source of State pride that a volume so refreshing and meritorious as "Songs Merry and Sad" is added to North Carolina bibliology. It is needless to speak of McNeill's productions, for they have won their way into publications of national reputation and been accepted by discriminating critics all over this country as models of rhythmic and lyric production worthy of a place in literature.

We must not fail to mention that McNeill dedicates his volume to Joseph P. Caldwell ("The Old Man"), editor of the Charlotte Observer, discoverer of genius, and patron of meritorious writers who need friendly encouragement and never fail to get it from one with the keen appreciation and fine judgment of "The Old Man."

The volume sells for $1.00, or will be sent by mail for $1.06 upon application to the publishers, the Stone & Barringer Company, Charlotte, N. C.

PEARSON'S MAGAZINE.

The August number of Pearson's Magazine has appeared, and surely it is a pronounced candidate for the favor of the reading public. It is beautifully illustrated, and the contents embrace a refreshing variety of literature, stories, and current matter. An article of absorbing interest is one by James Creelman, who writes a character sketch of Thomas A. Edison, including a talk with that world's genius and illustrations of his laboratory and workshop. Then there is the feature productions of Kate V. St. Maur, who ever entertains, instructs and benefits with her articles on "A Self-Supporting Home." Added to these are numerous stories and sketches that all challenge the marked interest that Pearson's always excites. The magazine is sent for $1 per annum and sells at 15 cents per copy. Address the Pearson Publishing Company, 2 to 20 Astor Place, New York.

Keeley Treatment Put Him on His Feet Again, After He Had Run Though Fortune and Mortgaged Home.

The Keeley Institute, Greensboro, N. C.

About twelve years ago I took the treatment at Greensboro, N. C., and had it not been for that today I doubt whether I would have a home; in fact, I do not think I would be livng to need a home. I cared for nothing but drink, and it took one quart for three drinks. I had run through nearly all I owned, which consisted of a stock of goods worth several thousand dollars, a comfortable home, and every thing to make home happy. Drink, like a prarie fire, had swept everything from. I had run my stock of goods down to a mere song and cared for nothing. I had even quit attending to the little business I had, and my wife and oldest son, who was tbout fourteen years old, were running it the best they could. I had even lost my credit, yes, everything. To make a long story short I was just as low down as a man could get. I had delirium so bad that my children had to leave home. Well, the worst had come, so it was either the Keeley Institute or the asylum, or worse, and my wife got me off to Greensboro Keeley Institute.

I returned home clothed in my right mind, and ready for business. I felt like a new man, and in fact was; and in a short while had as fine a business as any man in Fayetteville, and, instead of losing my home, in three years I owned five nice dwelling houses.

God bless the Keeley Institute and its noble directors. May they live long and prosper is the earnest prayer of

W. S. MAULTSBY.

Fayetteville, N. C., Dec. 7, 1904.

P. S.—The money I invested in the Keeley Treatment turned me out thousands.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—After Secretary Taft's speech the North Carolina Republicans pitched in and had the most quarrelsome State convention in many years. Even pistols were drawn. What was Mr. Taft up to?—Springfield Republican.

—To control the corporations and prevent private monopolies while insisting upon and keeping in operation the Dingley tariff by which these monopolies are established and on which they flourish is an impossibility. The thing is a contradiction on its face and the impossibility of its accomplishment in a practical way is as plain as an axiom.—Birmingham News.

—The telephone operator at Selma who killed a negro who was attempting to assault her, and that little waitress at Greensboro who gave the postmaster at Rockingham a blow on the head with a soup plate, show that there are some North Carolina girls, glory be, who are able to take care of themselves. The man who insults a girl and gets killed gets just what is due him.—Monroe (N. C.) Inquirer.

—That is disquieting news that comes from the Republicans of Buncombe and Henderson counties, to the effect that the Honorable Charles French Toms is likely to be formally read out of his newly adopted party when the Henderson convention meets August 4th. His offence seems to have been that he failed to cast his vote at the State convention in accordance with the instructions of his home folks.—Lexington (N. C.) Dispatch.

—Secretary Taft invited his North Carolina auditors to compare Democratic promises with Republican performances. Inasmuch as the Democrats have had no opportunity to carry out their promises in national affairs, that hardly seems like a fair way of putting it. Why not compare Republican promises with Republican performances? A beginning might be made with reciprocity promises. "Reciprocity and protection are twin measures of Republican policy," but they do not speak as they pass by.—Philadelphia Record.

—If he should be elected, Mr. Bryan would probably advocate many radical measures. Whether he could outdo Mr. Roosevelt along these lines is, however, open to question. Mr. Taft could give us no promise that, if re-elected, Mr. Roosevelt himself would not be urging government ownership of railroads within a short space of time. He took government rate-making from Mr. Bryan, and so he might government ownership, with a protest that only in that way could we stave off government ownership of the canals of Mars.—New York Post (Ind.).

TWINKLINGS.

Tom—I thought you told me Miss Seever was good-looking. Dick—Quite the contrary, old man. I said she looked good.—Philadelphia Press.

"Once in a while," said Uncle Eben, "a reformer is made f'um a politician dat's done got discouraged 'bout gittin' a chance at de graft."—Washington Star.

—"What do you know about the world, sir? Didn't you spend your youth in a theological seminary?" "Ah, but it was right next to a girls' college."—Life.

—"The man I marry," declared Miss Elder, "must be capable of great self-sacrifice." "Yes," murmured Miss Younger, "he'll have to be."—Cleveland Leader.

—"I want to see the president of this ice trust personally on urgent business." "Sorry, sir, but his term doesn't expire till next week."—Baltimore American.

—The Class—Do you suppose that young Rockefeller has much of a Bible class. "Yes, I think he must have about all the reporters of New York city."—Detroit Free Press.

—"Do you think that absence really makes the heart grow fonder?" inquired the young man who was not a particularly welcome caller. "I have never given the matter much consideration," was the young lady's response. "Suppose you stay away for five or six years and we'll see."—Pittsburg Post.

ASIATIC TIGER PROVERBS.

A tiger's meal—a gluttonous repast.

To face the tiger in his lair—great bravery.

A winged tiger—cunning added to power and ability.

After the Chinese the tigers—total devastation of a country.

A tiger of wood—a harmless being with a dangerous exterior.

To bring up a tiger and have him turn upon you—ingratitude.

"Maingoho," a man eater—a person with an ungovernable temper.

A tiger with a broken back—rage and fury which are powerless.

To let go the tail of a tiger—to avoid one danger and encounter another.

To turn from a deer and meet a tiger—the danger of too much caution.

Devoured by a tiger—said of a man who wishes to be concealed from his creditors.

You must enter the tiger's den if you would secure a cub—what is worth having is not procured without risk and trouble.—Washington Post.

Indians With Jewish Blood.

Sir Alexander Mackenzie had an idea that the Indians of the far northwest were partly Jewish in origin. From Lake Athabasca in 1794 he set out at the head of an expedition "in a birch bark canoe twenty-five feet long, four and three-quarters feet beam and twenty-six inches hold, with 3,000 pounds of baggage and provisions and a crew of nine French Canadians. He reached the Pacific coast and returned. The aborigines he met were "for the most part possessed of strongly religious instincts," said he in his report. "With regard to their origin, all we are prepared to state after a careful survey of their languages, manners and customs is that they are undoubtedly of a mixed origin; come from the north-northwest and had commerce in their early history perhaps through intermarriage with people of Jewish persuasion or origin."

Nervous Folks and Diet.

As a rule, salt meat is not adapted to the requirements of nervous people, as nutritious juices go into the brine to a great extent. Fish of all kinds is good for them. Raw eggs, contrary to the common opinion, are not as digestible as those that have been well cooked. Good bread, sweet butter and lean meat are the best food for the nerves. People troubled with insomnia and nervous starting from sleep and sensations of falling can often be cured by limiting themselves to a diet of milk alone for a time. An adult should take a pint at a meal and take four meals a day. People with weakened nerves require frequently a larger quantity of water than those whose nerves and brains are strong. It aids the digestion of these by making it soluble and seems to have a direct tonic effect.

Still Ahead in Low Prices

Our regular prices are much cheaper than any special prices yet advertised. Our goods are NEW. The following shows how and why we do and can undersell.

Discount on account of large purchases, average,	10 pr. ct
Discount for cash (we pay cash), average	10 pr. ct
Savings of freight on car shipment, average	5 pr. ct
Total,	25 pr. ct

As you see, we can sell goods at a profit of 25 per cent. and at the same time sell them for just what they would cost us if we bought in small quantities, paid local freight and bought on time. We do not try to make 25 per cent.

Our claim is corroborated by the number of prudent purchasers we send. For June the 1st to the present, we have sold $4,540.21 worth of goods, received more than $3,300.00 in cash. Our books are open for inspection of any doubters. When in need of furniture come to headquarters.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—The directors of the Bank of Lumberton, at a meeting this week, declared a 4 per cent. semi-annual dividend.

—Mount Airy Leader (Rep.): With such men as Settle, Whitener, Linney, Meekins, Price, Blackburn and Skinner on the stump in North Carolina, our side of the question will be taken care of.

—It is now an assure fact that a cotton mill will be built at Marietta, Robeson county. The promoters are meeting with good success and will probably organize Saturday.

—A very heavy downpour of rain Wednesday night, added to what has fallen for the past few weeks, damaged the crops of the Elizabeth City section hundreds, perhaps thousands of dollars. The farmers cannot stand much more wet weather. The whole of eastern Carolina is soaked, and the farmers are almost in despair.

—Charlotte Chronicle: The city and the people of Charlotte and environs are maintainng about 20 different water-works plants. Besides the city system, Dilworth has a plant, the Southern Cotton Oil Company has a plant. Most, if not all the cotton mills have individual plants for their own water supply. There must ultimately be a city supply from the Catawba river to do the whole business.

—Washington N. C., special, July 19: William and James Sexton, of Jamesville, were brought to this city yesterday and lodged in jail. The charge against them was operating an illicit distillery near Jamesville. This distillery is supposed to be the same one raided and captured by Revenue Collector J. C. Meekins, Jr., a few weeks ago. Both prisoners were required to give bond in the sum of $300 each for their appearance at the next term of court.

—A committee has been appointed, consisting of Messrs. A. M. Rankin, Robert Brackett and J. E. Kirkman, to look over the plans submitted by architects of the new building to be erected at High Point as the home of the First National Bank, the North Carolina Fire Insurance Company and the North Carolina Savings Bank & Trust Co. The committe is of the opinion that a steel frame structure is advisable, especially if the building is to be over five stories high.

—Salisbury special, July 19: Solicitor Hammer, will be here to-morrow to conduct an examination of the State's witnesses in the Lyerly murder case. There will be some sensational developments if all the talk indulged in for the past few days crystalizes into something more substantial than hot air. The little Gillespie negro is not the State's reliance only and there will be white people of character who will give evidence showing the wisdom of the arrests made Saturday.

—During the effort to try the Wades boro lynchers the lonesomest looking man in Monroe was H. D. Kendall, the man who turned State's evidence. He was dressed in a black Prince Albert coat and wore a white neck tie, which gave him a rather ministerial appearance. It was noticeable that his old Anson neighbors shunned him and it is said, Kendall burst into tears when one of them refused to speak to him.

—Lumberton Robesonian: The register of deeds a few days ago refused to issue license to J. W. Sealy to marry Novella Chavis, a Croatan woman, because her father, John Chavis, objected, alleging that Sealy is not a Croatan. Sealy employed counsel to aid him in securing license but the register continued to refuse to issue them. Sealy is about 60 years old and married a Croatan woman about 30 years ago. Since that time a law has been passed that makes intermarriage of the races illegal. This is only one of the instances in which the Croatans are drawing the line about their race and are standing for a separation.

—Charlotte special, July 19: An effort will be made tonight to organize the cotton mill employes of Charlotte. The mills have been visited by representatives of the labor union and the employes have been thoroughly notified of the purpose of the meeting in progress tonight. Mr. J. E. Davis, who went to the plant of the Charlotte cotton mills, today says that he met with a cold reception, and that he was ordered to leave the building by the superintendent. Other representatives who have visited the mills have reported that in many cases they were told they could not interfere with the mill help, and were compelled to leave without accomplishing that for which they were sent. Mr. Davis declares, however, that the meeting will be held and that a union will be effected under any circumstances.

—Elizabeth City, special, July 19: It is learned here tonight that a deal is being engineered by which the Virginia-Carolina Inland Steamship Company, of this city will purchase from and Albemarle and Chesapeake Canal Company all the latter company's interest in the aFirfield canal in Hyde county. In a quiet way the negotiations have been going on for some time, and they have now reached the point when it is authoritatively stated that the transfer will be made. The canal is four or five miles wide and runs from Fairfield into the Alligator River. It is the only possible entrance into that part of the county, there being no railroad in the entire county. This canal is the only direct boat line. Its purchase will give the local company an open route into the very heart of what are perhaps the richest farming lands in the State. The deal is reported here as very important.

—Salisbury special, July 19: A band of twenty-five citizens were fooled in their determination to lynch John Black, alias Ed. Davis, colored, who was brought to this city this afternoon from Tennessee, where he was arrested as the supposed murderer of Conductor Wiggins, in this city, in April. The mob got information that the prisoner was being conveyed on passenger train No. 30, and met the same at Barber, fourteen miles west of Salisbury, where it was proposed to take Black from the train and swing him to a limb. The train was boarded and cool heads soon discovered that the prisoner was not the murderer of Wiggins. The disappointed crowd came to Salisbury on the same train with the negro, who was tonight returned to Tennessee.

—Monroe special, July 19: In the Superior Court here today two white boys, Seburn Bowen and Joe Smith, were convicted of burglary in the second degree and were sentenced to three years each on the county roads. Smith and Bowen are each about sixteen years old, and claim Anniston, Alabama, as their home. Judging from their appearance, they are evidently boys of good families who have been led away by evil influences. They were arrested several weeks ago near Marshville, this county, while tramping through the country, in company with a man by the name of Collins, who has since been taken to Alabama on requisition of the Governor of that State in which he stands indicted for a capital crime. Smith and Bowen claim to have no father or mother, but each claims to have one living sister. Judge Shaw instructed the clerk to notify the sisters of the boys of their conviction and state that he might reconsider the matter when they were heard from.

—Lumberton Robesonian: 'Squire John McNeill repeated to us a story that had been told to him by Mr. Wm. Phillips that is interesting in itself and is a probable solution of the finding of the pile of bones by the workmen at the Dresden cotton mill site some days ago. There is a log house in Wishart township that was built 125 years ago by an Englishman named Stephen Glear. The house is in a good state of preservation at the present time. It is about twelve miles from Lumberton, between Jacob Swamp and Lumber river. Nails were evidently not much used those days as the covering of the house was put on with wooden pegs. So was the weather boarding. The door was even made of wooden pegs. The chimney was made of sticks. The building is about 20x30 feet. The story goes that this house was occupied by Glear and his wife. They owned a negro woman, whom they promised to give her freedom when they died. The wait was too long for the woman and she murdered them both with an axe. She was relating what she had done to a confidential friend and was overhead. On this evidence she was convicted and sentenced to hang. This was about 100 years ago. As was customary in those days, on the day of execution she was taken from the jail in a cart to the improvised gallows or the limbs of a tree near the Lewis mill, where she was duly hung. The remains were chunked into a hole right there, which is about the place that the bones were found several days ago.

SAVANNAH MARINE HOSPITAL.

Mr. Malcolm McKay In Charge There as Phamacist.

(Savannah News, 20th.)

Mr. Malcolm McKay, who has been sent out from the Marine Hospital Service Bureau at Washington to take charge of the pharmaceutical department of the Marine Hospital when it is opened, arrived in the city yesterday morning.

He came here from Cincinnati, where he went from Washington to select supplies for his department. The supplies have been shipped and will be received here on their arrival by Mr. McKay.

The date for the opening of the hospital has not yet been announced, but it will probably not be very much longer. The selection of a surgeon to take charge of the hospital has not yet been announced, but it is regarded as quite probable that Dr. Gustave M. Corput will be appointed.

VAUGHAN—MOLINA.

Wedding of Much Interest to Many Friends in This City.

Friends in this city yesterday received with much interest handsomely engraved cards, bearing the following announcement:

William Henry Molina
Grace Arthur Vaughan
Married
Thursday, July the Nineteenth
Nineteen Hundred and Six
Petersburg, Virginia.
At Home
After July Twenty-fifth
355 Washington St.,
Petersburg, Va.

Both the bride and groom are well known in Wilmington and have a great many friends here. The bride has visited friends here more than once and the groom was for some time in the Atlantic Coast Line general offices in this city.

Moore's Creek Picnic.

The annual picnic on the historic battleground of Moore's Creek, near Currie, on the A. & Y. Division of the Atlantic Coast Line, was given yesterday and is reported to have been largely attended. A number of people from Wilmington went up for the day, including the Delgado Band, which furnished music for the occasion. A feature of the formal exercises was an address by Mr. J. H. Myrover, a gentleman eminently qualified to speak upon any branch of North Carolina history.

Special Services To-morrow.

Rev. Fred. D. Hale, D. D., pastor of the First Baptist church, will preach two special sermons at the church tomorrow on the subject "The Marriage Relation." The young people are especially invited to the services as the theme will be developed along practical lines, embracing "Love, Courtship and Marriage." As on last Sunday night there will be special music and room for all.

Mayor's Court Yesterday.

Only a limited number of penitents were at the bar in the municipal court yesterday. G. W. Brown and Joe Johnson, both colored, charged with an affray, were let off with the costs and $5 fine, respectively. Dave Nixon, charged with doing a huckster's business without license, was let off upon payment of the tax. Joe Yates, not he of the Atlantic National Bank, however, was taxed with the costs in a case of drunkenness.

Mr. C. H. Alexander a Delegate.

The Star is in receipt of an official communication from Chairman G. J. Boney, of the late Democratic County Convention, stating that in the recent announcement of the delegates to the Congressional convention at Fayetteville, the name of C. F. Alexander appeared. The name should have been that of Mr. C. H. Alexander, of Harnett township. There is no C. F. Alexander in this county.

LOCAL DOTS.

—A building permit was issued yesterday to W. A. Willson, Jr., for the erection of a two-story, eight-room residence on Nun street, between Fourth and Fifth, same to cost $2,300; Silvia & Skipper contractors.

—By deed filed for record yesterday D. O'Connor and wife transferred to John E. Taylor and T. R. Mask, for $600, property at southwest corner of Miller and Bay streets, 132x165 feet in size.

—Fayetteville Observer: "Several new passenger coaches for the Raleigh and Southport Railroad have been completed by the builders and will be put into service by August 1st. One of them is a chair coach."

—At last the much-needed light on Nutt street, between Grace and Walnut, appears to be on the way. In front of Boney & Harper's mill yesterday a post for a gas lamp was put up and the light is most certain to follow. Whether the work is being done by the city or by private interests could not be learned.

—Fayetteville Observer: "F. R. Rose, Esq., returned yesterday from Wilmington, where he held a conference with the Atlantic Coast Line officials in regard to several matters of importance to Fayetteville, including schedules, the extension of the Columbia and Elrod Shoo-fly, the sale of tickets, etc."

—The houseboat Clifford, from which the party at Wrightsville Beach had such a thrilling rescue last Sunday, proceeded up from Southport under her own power yesterday, apparently in good condition. She had been towed into Southport by the steamer Sanders, of the Ocean Fisheries Company.

—At the Chamber of Commerce yesterday Mr. E. C. Holt, president of Delgado Millis, left a fine stalk of cotton as an example of that which might be grown in New Hanover county. A card attached to the stalk bore this legend: "Planted May 2nd., about three weeks late; 72 squares, 5 feet 3 inches high; about one-half putting on squares; small amount of Navassa guano and worked only twice."

—The touching appeal of a little girl in behalf of her father, charged in Justice Boremann's court yesterday with being drunk and down, aroused the sympathy of the magistrate and with a sharp lecture to the drunken man, he was sent home and admonished in the future to try to be worthy of the sweet little daughter who had just come to his rescue. It is usually levity that prevails in Justice Boremann's court, but yesterday the conditions were reversed when the child appealed in behalf of the drunken father and offered her own money to secure his release.

LYESLY MURDER TRIAL.

Preliminary Begun Yesterday Into Horrible Tragedy in Rowan.

Salisbury, July 20.—The preliminary examination of witnesses in the Lyerly murder case, which began here this morning, has, so far not resulted in bringing to light any new evidence. Several witnesses were examined this morning by Solicitor Hammer, and Ex-Congressman Klutz and T. C. Linn, who will be associated with him in the trial.

Both of the Lyerly girls took the stand, but they told nothing to add to the story that has not been printed in all the papers. They were accompanied to the court room by a number of Salisbury women and they appeared well enough, though it could be seen that they were suffering much.

The only new experience of consequence was that given by Mat Webb, who testified that he had heard Nease Gillespie threaten Mr. Lyerly three weeks befre the murder. Other witnesses, not available to-day will, it is said, make the case even stronger.

Henry Mayhew, Fanny Gillespie's 11-year-old son, whose testimony was the most damaging of all, says that he saw the accused burn their clothes after the murder. The boy is disposed to become frightened when on the stand, but he is degarded by Solicitor Hammer and his associates as an excellent witness.

It can be said with certainty that the examinations, so far as they have gone, have been all that the lawyers could wish.

HARTJE DIVORCE MAKES A STIR

His Lawyer Creates Great Indignation by Reference to Pittsburg Women.

CROOKED WORK BOTH SIDES

Lawyers Charge Each Other With All Manner of Questionable Things—Rumor That Both Hartje Children Will be Kidnapped.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Pittsburg, July 20.—Attorney J. Scott Ferguson, of counsel for August Hartje, in his suit for divorce, startled the apectators in the court room today during an impassioned argument against the admission as evidence of the depositons of Clifford Hooe, the negro coachman and co-respondent in the suit with the following words:

"It doesn't do to say that this man, Hooe's a negro—God knows there is many an intelligent woman who has sinned as we say this woman has sinned. History is full of it. I repeat many women high in life socially and in this community has sinned as this woman has done."

Charges of crooked methods made by both sdes was still another feature of the sensational Hartje divorce during its hearing to-day.

What are apparently a series of legal victories for Mrs. Hartje, the respondent in the suit, also marked the day's session and culminated in the admission of the confessions of Clifford Hooe, the colored coachman, in which he is said to have declared that he lied when he swore that he had improper relations witn the respondent.

With the offering of this confession and of several other documents to-day, the case for the respondent was practically closed although Attorney John Freeman, of Mrs. Hartje's counsel, told the court that he might have some new matter to present later.

Detective Ray, of the Perkins agency, told of the arrest of Hooe in Ohio, and of his being brought back to Pittsburg where he made his confession. Attorney John Marron, of Hartje's counsel, put Ray through a rigid cross-examination in which he tried to show that Hooe was made drunk and coerced by the detective into making his confession.

Superintendent G. B. Perkins, of the detective agency, told practically the same story as had Ray and he was put through an equally trying cross-examination.

Mrs. Mary Scott Hartje, the respondent, testified that she was present when the first depositon of the negro coachman was taken and that what he said there was "outrageously false."

There was a terrific battle of argument when ocunsel for Augustus Hartje tried to get stricken from the case the evidence concerning Hooe, given by John L. Welshons, Hartje's closest friend and the witnesses who followed him.

Attorney Ferguson led the argument for Hartje and bitterly arraigned Mrs. Mary Scott Hartje. Attorney John M. Freeman, chief of counsel for Mrs. Hartje, replied sharply, and Judge Robert S. Frazer ordered that the evidence be considered and made a part of the case.

Attorney Freeman resumed his ventilation of the Clifford Hooe episode and his attempt to show that there was a conspiracy between Welshons, Augustus Hartje and Hooe, his former coachman. Mrs. Hartje went on the stand and denied with blazing eyes the charge that she had been intimate with Hooe.

At the close of the day, Judge Frazer said that the four statements made by the negro coachman would not be real in open court. The judge said it would not be well to have them made public at this time.

Adjournment was taken until Monday.

To Kidnap Children.

Telegrams received by the police tonight indicate a plot to kidnap the two Hartje children. The telegram was sent by Superintendent Taylor, of the Philadelphia Police Department and read:

"Rumor here of plot completed for abduction of one or both Hartje children. Three men reported left here this morning for Pittsburg. No description."

As a result two special officers are on guard about the home of John F. Scott, father of Mrs. Hartje and where Mrs. Hartje is now living.

HAUGHTY CHINA.

Once Called England an "Obscure Corner in the Wilderness."

In the message sent by the empress of China to King George III. there appears this passage:

"The stores of goods at the Celestial court are plenteously abundant. There is nothing but what is possessed, so that there is really no need for the produce of outer barbarians in order to balance supply and demand. However, as the tea, silk and porcelain produced by the Celestial court are indispensable objects to the different states of Europe and to thy kingdom, for this reason we have in our grace and commiseration established the foreign hongs at Macao in order that all daily needs may be duly supplied and every one share in our superfluous riches. But now thine envoys have made considerable demands over and above what is provided by fixed precedent, in such wise as to run seriously counter to the principle of recognizing the bounty of the Celestial court to distant men and its nurturing care of the different barbarians. Moreover, the Celestial court exercises a controlling supervision over all countries and is benevolent to each in an equal degree. For instance, those trading in Canton province do not come from the kingdom of England alone. If they were all to come clamoring in the same way and wantonly to pester us with requests impossible to concede in this style, is it to be supposed that we could always go out of our way to grant them?

"Remembering, however, that thy kingdom occupies an obscure corner in the distant wilderness and is far removed from us by ocean upon ocean; also that thou art naturally unversed in the political etiquette of the Celestial court, we for this reason commanded our ministers to make all this plain to thine envoys, instruct their minds and dismiss them back to their country. But, fearing that thine envoys on their return home may fail to present matters thoroughly to thee, we again take up their requests, one by one, and prepare these further commands for thy particular instruction, opining thou wilt be able to grasp our meaning."

Willing to Compromise.

An Englishman at a dinner once told a tale of a tiger he had shot which measured twenty-four feet from snout to tail tip. Every one was astonished, but no one ventured to insinuate a doubt of the truth of the story. Presently a Scotchman told his tale. He had once caught a fish which, he said, he was unable to pull in alone, managing only to land it at last with the aid of six friends. "It was a skate, and it covered two acres." Silence followed this recital, during which the offended Englishman left the table. The host followed. After returning he said to the Scotchman: "Sir, you have insulted my friend. You must apologize." "I dinna insoolt him," said the Scot. "Yes, you did, with your two acre fish story. You must apologize." "Well," said the offender slowly, with the air of one making a great concession, "tell him if he will take ten feet off that tiger I will see what I can do with the fish."

Why Swimming Beginners Fail.

You try hard to keep your mouth closed, but the water somehow will find a way into your mouth and nostrils. A beginner always draws in his breath just at the moment he strikes out. This insures the getting his mouth and nostrils full of water at once, and a collapse is inevitable. If you will remember to take breath between the strokes all will be well. Quite naturally, when you draw your knees outward for the kick, you will inhale, and just as surely as your feet are thrust from you will you expel the air from your lungs. Knowledge on the management of the breath will come with practice and can only be acquired in that one way.

He Had Not Lost It.

A London bus driver had shouted, "'Igh 'Oborn!" says a writer in Pearson's Weekly, till the passenger on the seat behind him could no longer resist the temptation to make a joke.

"Excuse me," said the passenger, "but haven't you dropped something?"

"I see wot you're driving at," returned the driver keenly, "but never mind. I shall pick it up when we get to Hoxford street."

Pardoned.

"Who is that distinguished looking man?" asked the stranger.

"Dat man saved me a good deal of trouble once," replied the man on the corner. "He interrupted me in de middle of a sentence and"—

"Ah, I see. You were going to say something improper and"—

"Naw! I wuz in de penitentiary, an' he wuz governor of de state at de time."—Philadelphia Ledger.

ROOSEVELT DEEP IN POLITICS.

Republican Congressional Campaign to Be Arranged Monday.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 20.—Plans for the Republican Congressional campaign are to be formulated at Sagamore Hill Monday. President Roosevelt has invited Speaker Cannon, Chairman Sherman, of the Republican Congressional campaign committee, Secretary Loudenslager and Treasurer McKinley, of that committee, to luncheon on Monday. It is understood that the Congressional situation will be presented in such form that the weak places may be readily ascertained; that the list of available speakers will be gone over; that the argument to be made will be discussed and that the information to be embodied in the campaign text book will be thoroughly gone over. The speeches made during the last session of Congress will be canvassed with a view to selecting for general distribution those which are most adapted for campaign purposes. President Roosevelt is taking a keen interest in the Congressional campaign, and the conference planned for Monday immediately precedes the active operations of the campaign committee.

REVOLUTION RIPE IN MEXICO.

Uprising to Drive Out Americans, English French and Germans.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

El Paso, Texas, July 20.—Raefal Ysabel, governor of Sonora, Mexico, passed through El Paso today en route to Mexico City, to consult with President Diaz and prepare for the threatened uprising in that country, September 16. President Diaz is calling all his governors into conference. Considerable trouble is feared in Sonora. Escananea is located in that State and is said to be a revolutionary hot bed.

The "up rising" to which reference is made is the proposed demonstration to be made against foreigners on September 16, the day of the independence fiesta in the various State capitals. The movement originated with the league of Mexican railroad employes and its purpose is to drive out of the country the Americans, English, French and Geramns who hold official positions in the railroads, mines and smelters. The government has been making preparations to control the situation and prompt measures will be taken it is said, to quell any disorder that may result.

RESTORE CONFEDERATE FLAG.

Memento of Butler's Capture of New Orleans.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Boston, July 20.—Resolution directing the city clerk to restore to the city of New Orleans a Confederate flag, which was taken as a trophy of war by Major General Butler from the city hall at New Orleans when the General took possession of that city in April, 1862, were filed to-day with the clerk of the Boston common council by Councilman Thomas F. Doherty. The matter will be considered at a meeting of the council next week.

General Butler presented the flag to the city in 1863, and since that time it has been stored in a vault at city hall. Councilman Doherty presented his resolution at the request of the United Daughters of the Confederacy.

The Mustache.

The wearing of mustaches is such a universal custom that we might suppose it never had a special meaning or beginning. But the fact is that it did have a beginning several hundred years ago and served a very important purpose for awhile. For several centuries the Moors had possession of Spain, but were finally conquered or driven out by the Christians. The Moors were believers in Mohammedanism, and, having made many converts, it was not always an easy matter to tell a Mohammedan from a Christian, and as there were constant conflicts between the people of the two religions the Christians decided to adopt some sign by which they could be distinguished from the unbelievers. So they let the hair grow on the upper lip and on the chin in order to produce as nearly as possible the form of a cross, and in that way they were able to recognize one another at all times and flock together in times of danger.

MRS. B. L. DUKE ACCUSES TRUST

(New York Herald.)

Chicago, July 18.—Mrs. Alice Webb Duke, whose husband, Brodie L. Duke, of New York, made sensational charges in his divorce suit against her, is now in Chicago completing preparations for a bitter fight to vindicate her character. Witnesses have been gathered throughout the United States, several of them in this city, who are relied on not only to vindicate Mrs. Duke, but to make disclosures in comparison with which the accusations heard in the divorce suit will appear insignificant.

Prominent society men and women mingling in the wealthy set to which Duke belongs are to be involved by the statements of the witnesses. An expose of revelry which is expected to throw a new light on the case is planned by Mrs. Duke in refuting the charges of misconduct which her husband made against her.

During her present stay in Chicago Mrs. Duke has been conferring with attorneys and witnesses who are expected to testify in her behalf. Former United States Senator William E. Mason has been retained as her counsel. He will go to New York to take part in the contest.

Mrs. Duke declared to-day that she would prove that certain witnesses who testified against her in the divorce suit committed perjury. She said the charges were the outgrowth of a conspiracy. She expected to introduce direct testimony which would bring on prosecutions for perjury.

Mrs. Duke says she will attack the conduct of Duke. She declares Duke, who is a brother of James B. Duke, and with him is interested in the tobacco trust, has been making life miserable for her ever since the divorce case was begun and insists that she has been slandered and libeled by members of her husband's family.

"I will prove that perjury was resorted to against me in the hearing in which Judge Blanchard granted the interlocutory decree," said Mrs. Duke. "I will show that a conspiracy caused the perjury.

"The tobacco trust has been unable to get control of my company, and it is combining the fight on my company with one on me."

Mrs. Duke formerly lived in Chicago. She was married about 15 months ago. She has been interested in the tobacco business for several years, and was an active member of the Taylor-Webb Company, of Texas. She is now at the head of the A. Webb-Duke Tobacco Company.

The presence of Mrs. Duke in a modest suite at the Grand Pacific Hotel became known to-day and caused surprise among her former associates in this city. She has negotiated with a railroad for a private car to take her party of witnesses and attorneys to New York city within the next few days.

AGUINALDO NOW REFORMER.

Says Gambling Must Be Eradicated—It's Mother of Crime.

Washington, July 17.—A crusade against gambling in the Philippines, conducted by an organization known as the Moral Progress League, has brought out a statement from Emilio Aguinaldo, the former dictator, who has allied himself with the reform forces, and has, furthermore, uncovered the existence of what is known as the "Cockpit Trust."

"I am heartily in sympathy with the objects of the Moral Progress League," Aguinaldo is quoted as saying. "Cockpits and card playing must go. Gambling, more than anything else, is the mother of crime in the Philippines. The fact is that gamblers have gone so far as to pawn their children in play and in order to continue playing. I would go as far as to prohibt the importation of gaming cards into the islands."

The "Cockpit Trust" is preparing to fight the Moral Progress League to the bitter end. The trust includes every cockpit proprietor outside of Manila. The organization proposes to check legislation and to control elections in the provinces. The Philippine Commission has passed a law prohibting cockpits in Manila, but further legislation on the subject is to be left to the Philippine Assembly, and the Cockpit Trust is endeavoring to control the election of representatives to that body. The law of the Commission has proved a failure, because the cockpits were moved just outside the city limits, where they remain in full blast. Progressive Americans and Filipinos fear that the first general election to be held in the islands will be corrupted and debauched by the owners of cockpits, because of the injection of this issue into the campaign. They want the anti-cockpit legislation at once, in advance of the election.

Only 82 Years Old.

"I am only 82 years old and don't expect even when I get to be real old to feel that way as long as I can get Electric Bitters," says Mrs. E. H. Brunson, of Dublin, Ga. SOUTHERN'S NEW STEEL CAR

Some Facts of the First One Ever Put In Use.

A car built entirely of steel and calculated to resist damage in wrecks and to save the lives of passengers in any emergency has been put into commission by the Southern Railway. It will be part of the New York and Florida limited, which runs between New York and Jacksonville, Fla. Two other similar cars are being constructed for the Southern by the Pressed Steel Car Company, of Pittsburg, Pa.

This car, which is an innovation in steam railroading, is seventy-four feet feet and six inches long over all and weighs 110,000 pounds. So strong is it that it has been said that a train composed of cars of its kind could not be demolished in any railroad wreck.

Wood enters into its composition only in the interior, where wood is used in small quantities for decorative purposes. But even this wood has been so treated as to make it fireproof.

Consequently, the Southern Railway prides itself on having gotten out a car that is as near fireproof and wreckproof as any car can possibly be built. If the three cars which have been ordered prove satisfactory there seems little doubt that this type will soon become the standard for safe, comfortable transportation of passengers.

These wonders of strength and endurance were built by the Pittsburg company under the personal supervision of Mechanical Superintendent A. Steward and Consulting Mechanical Engineer R. L. Ettinger, of the Southern Railway. It is said that this type of car will be found economical for the railroad company, owing to their durability.

THE COTTON MARKETS.

New York, July 20.—The cotton market was more active to-day and ruled very nervous and unsettled, with the close at a net decline of 4 to 5 points. Sales for the day were estimated at 200,000 bales.

The market opened at a decline of 3 to 8 points in response to lower cables from Liverpool and unsettling reports concerning financial troubles among London firms, which was supposed to arise from the unfavorable situation in Russia. Later cables from Liverpool said there was no cause for uneasiness so far as English financial circles were concerned, but reported an unfavorable opening of the market, which closed at a decline of 5 to 6 points. The market was quite active from the start and bears raided it vigorously during the first few minutes in an effort to catch stop orders. But at a decline of about 7 to 10 points there was a big demand for the covering of the smaller shorts and through brokers, supposed to be operating for leading bulls, which rallied the market 3 or 4 points. Later, however, reports from the Southwest that new bales were beginning to come in, and that the movement would be heavy in August, together with favorable weather reports and forecasts, started renewed pressure and the low point was reached in the afternoon. There was a slight recovery toward the close on covering and the final tone was steady. At the low point July touched the low level of the season, and August sold under the previous low level on July 26th. Southern spot markets generally unchanged. Private crop reports conflicting.

Receipts at the ports to-day 3,590 against 3,217 last week and 18,198 last year. For the week 25,000 bales against 27,636 last week and 13,715 against 103,715 last year. To-day's receipts at New Orleans 2,214 against 2,632 last year, and at Houston 760 against 3,068 last year.

GET INSIDE.

Your Friends and Neighbors in Wilmington Will Show You How.

Rubbing the back won't cure backache.

A liniment may relieve, but can't cure.

Backache comes from the inside—from the kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills get inside—They cure sick kidneys.

Here is Wilmington proof that this is so:

R. F. Rowan, clerk with L. W. Davis' Clothing House, residing on Castle street, between Sixth and Seventh, says: "I strained myself lifting a heavy box, and suffered great pain across my back for a long time. I used plasters and liniment, but they did me no good. I could hardly stand up straight, my back was so weak. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised in our newspapers, I went to Bellamy's drug store and got a box. I felt better the next day and continued using them according to directions and my back regained its old strength. I was simply surprised at the result. I will gladly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills every time for backache."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—doan's—and take no other.

DISCRIMINATING LADIES.

Enjoy Using Herpicide on Account of Its Distinctiveness.

The ladies who have used Newbro's Herpicide speak of it in the highest terms, for its quick effect in cleansing the scalp of dandruff and also for its excellence as a general hair-dressing. It makes the scalp feel fresh and it allays that itching which dandruff will cause. Newbro's Herpicide effectively cures dandruff, as it destroys the germ that causes it. The same germ causes hair to fall out, and later baldness; in killing it, Herpicide stops falling hair and prevents baldness. It is also an ideal hair dressing, for it lends an aristocratic charm to the hair that is quite distinctive. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

PANAMA BOND ISSUE IS OVERSUBSCRIBED

Average Price Was 103.74 to 103.95, and Treasury Officials Are Satisfied—Fayetteville Bank Got Block of $100,000 at 103.80.

By Cable to The Morning Star.

Washington, July 20.—Bids were opened at the Treasury Department late this afternoon for the $30,000,000 ten-thirty Panama Canal bonds under Secretary Shaw's circulation of July 2, and although no awards will be made until to-morrow or later, it is evident that the entire issue has been subscribed for at an average of from 103.94 to 103.95. Secretary Shaw and other officials of the Treasury Department are entirely satisfied with the figures obtained.

The total number and amounts of bids made will not be ascertained until to-morrow, but it is apparent that the whole issue has been subscribed for several times over. The largest and best single offer was that of Fisk & Robinson, of New York, who made six bids of five millions each, at an average of 103.85. Smaller bids at higher prices, however, will probably reduce the amount which will likely be awarded to them, about $15,000,000. One bid of 106 for the whole issue came from a man named Lindsay at New Orleans, but on account of conditions named and for other reasons the bid was not considered. Several telegraphic bids were received too late to be considered.

The Secretary having stated that the bonds would be numbered serially, beginning with the highest bid, one offer was made at 125 for $1,000, thus securing to the bidder bond No. 1. An examination of the best bids shows that offers of 104 1-16 and up aggregated $15,349,860; 104 to 104 1-16 aggregated $1,100,880; 103.75 to 104 aggregated $14,178,000.

Among the bidders each for $100,000 or over, whose bids were as high or higher than 103.63, the lowest figure at which any of the bonds can be awarded, were the National Bank of Fayetteville, N. C., which was awarded $100,000 at 103.80, the Palmetto National Bank of Columbia, S. C., which got $300,000 at $103,875, and E. H. H. Dean, of Jacksonville, Fla., who got $100,000 at 103.77. The successful bids run from 104¾ to 103.63.

MRS. HARRY K. THAW KNOCKED DOWN AT TOMBS

Curious Crowd Rushed Around Her and Impeded Her Way—Suit to Compel Judge Olcott to Turn Over All Papers.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

New York, July 20.—When Mrs. Harry K. Thaw reached the Tombs prison to-day and made her daily dash through a lane in a crowd of curious persons, one man in the crowd pushed forward so roughly that he bumped against Mrs. Thaw and she was knocked down. Mrs. Thaw was not injured and continued on her visit to her husband, after which she went to the office of Mr. Hartridge, his attorney.

W. M. K. Olcott, the lawyer who was dismissed by Harry K. Thaw, will have until Monday to decide whether he shall surrender all the papers in the Thaw case to Clifford W. Hartridge, Thaw's new counsel. Although a large quantity of papers have been surrendered by Mr. Olcott, Mr. Hartridge asked Justice McLean today for an order directing the delivery of all those remaining in Mr. Olcott's possession.

John David Radeffer, A. M. (Roanoke college), Ph. D. (Johns Hopkins) has accepted the chair of German and French in Roanoke college, Salem, Va. Professor Radeffer is thoroughly prepared by university study in America and Europe for the new position to which he comes from the Library of Congress, Washington, D. C. He succeeds Dr. F. V. N. Painter, who is transferred to the new department of education just established at Roanoke college.

William Jennings Bryan will be given a public reception and welcome home by Democrats of Louisville and the entire South soon after the Eastern Democrats get through welcoming him. A movement has been on foot for some time to make the reception a big event. John W. Vreeland, member of the Democratic State central committee, from the Fifth district, has charge of the arrangements. It is his intention to invite all the Democrats in the South. The reception is to be held in the armory, which will seat 17,000 people.

DIAMOND KING'S GREAT FORTUNE

Mr. Beit's Will Filed for Probate in London by Trustees.

BEQUESTS OVER $15,000,00

England's Richest Man Left $6,000,000 to Develop Railways, Telegraph and Make Improvements in Africa.

(By Cable to The Morning Star.)

London, July 20.—Owing to statements regarding the will of Alfred Beit, the South African financier, the executors of Mr. Beit's estate this evening gave out the exact terms of the public bequests, without, however, disclosing the amount of the fortune left. As forecasted, the document proves to be very interesting; lacking little of the remarkable qualities which gossip attributed to the bequests. The sums enumerated make the vast total of $9,675,000, not including the value of the estate bequeathed to his native city of Hamburg, or the art treasures bestowed on the national gallery and the museums of Berlin and Hamburg. It is, however, believed that the aggregate will be not far short of $1,500,000. The most notable provision of the will is that in which a body of trustees get control of $6,000,000, to be used in the development and constructions of means of communication, transmission by railway, telegraphs and wireless telegraphy and telephone in Rhodesia and upon the Cape to Cairo railway, which, with other bequests for South Africa, demonstrate that Mr. Beit's interest in the welfare of the country in which his fortune was made was equal to that of his old associate, Cecil Rhodes.

DUN'S WEKLY TRADE REVIEW

Cotton Picking is Going on and Wheat Harvest Big.

New York, July 20.—R. G. Dun & Co's Weekly Review of Trade will say tomorrow:

Exceptionally encouraging reports for this time of the year are received regarding trade, industry and transportation but there is no response in the market for securites. The best news of the past week comes from agricultural sections where progress is fully maintained, harvesting of Winter wheat promising a larger yield than expected, and of good quality while corn and oats exceed anticipations; cotton picking has begun in the early districts and hay alone of the leading crops threatens to be short.

As results on the farm become assured there is a growth of confidence that brngs out large orders for Fall and Winter delivery of all staples. There is a general disposition to extend facilities in order to keep pace with expanding needs. The only important labor trouble that threatens is a local building complication that will be averted if conservative counsel prevails. Official returns show that foreign commerce in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1906 far elapsed all records both as to exports and imports, while the new year promises still better results because of the surplus on the farms available for consumers abroad. Railway earnings thus far reported for July show an average increase of 7.2 per cent. over last year's.

Restoration of foundry pig to $14 is probable the best report for the week in the iron and steel industry.

PEACE TREATY SIGNED ON THE MARBLEHEAD

Terms Secure Peace in Central America But Particulars Not Known—President Roosevelt Gratified at the Successful Termination.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

San Jose, July 20.—A treaty of peace between Guatemala, Salvalor and Honduras was signed today on board the United States cruiser Marblehead, on the high seas. The peace comissioners of Guatemala will be landed today. The commissioners of Salvador and Honduras will meet at Acajutla early tomorrow.

The members of the American legations will land at the respective points where they are accredited. There was a strenuous discussion and some difficulty in reaching mutually acceptable conditons.

The Mexican Minister, Senor Gamboa, was active in assisting in bringing about an agreement. The peace commissioners adopted resolutions thanking the Presidents of the United States and Mexico for their intervention.

Official Announcement.

Washington, July 20.—The State Departemnt tonight was advised of the signing of the treaty of peace by the representatives of the belligerent republics aboard the Marblehead. A cablegram was received from Mr. Merry, the American minister to Salvador, Costa Rica, and Nicaragua, announcing that a treaty of peace had been signed on board the American warship. In his message Mr. Merry referred to a joint message sent by himself and Mr. Combs, the American minister to Guatemala and Honduras, which message had not reached the State Department to night. This message, it is believed, gives details as to the conclusions reached and is awaited anxiously by the officials here. The Department has no advices as to the details of this treaty or the extent of the settlement of the questions.

Roosevelt Gratified.

Oyster Bay, July 20.—President Roosevelt was unofficially informed to night of the signing of the treaty of peace between Guatemala, Salvador and Honduras today on board the American cruiser Marblehead. The news was very gratifying but it is said no statement would be given out by the President until word of the successful culmination of the negotiations undertaken by the United States and Mexico reaches Sagamore Hill through official channels. This probably will be tomorrow.

WARRANTS FOR ROCKEFELLER.

(By Cable to The Morning Star.)

Paris, July 20.—John D. Rockefeller sailed for New York to-day on the Hamburg-American Line steamer, Amerika. He was accompanied by his physician and members of his family. Mr. Rockefeller declined to discuss the announcements of legal proceedings against him which are awaiting his arrival in the United States

Findlay, Ohio, July 20.—Sheriff Groves, who has in his possession a warrant for the arrest of John D. Rockefeller, based on the criminal information recently filed in the Probate Court here by County Prosecutor David, charging Mr. Rockefeller, as the alleged president of the Standard Oil Company, with violation of the Valentine anti-trust law, says either he or one of his deputies will attempt to serve the warrant upon the landing of Mr. Rockefeller in New York. It is stated, further, that if the papers are served, Governor Harris will at once be asked to make requisition on Governor Higgins, of New York, for extradition papers. The claim is set up, however, that as the information and warrant only charge a misdemeanor, no requisition under the law can be issued.

REIGN OF TERROR IN RUSSIAN CITY

Destroyed By Incendiary Fire and Populace Lynched Accused Incendiaries.

MANY BURNED TO DEATH

Three Papers in St. Petersburg Suppressed—People in Uproar and Troops Called Out—Empire is Greatly Disturbed.

(By Cable to The Morning Star.)

St. Petersburg, July 20.—The Misla and three other newspapers of this city were confiscated to-day. All the members of the editorial staff of the Misla were arrested.

The police have forbidden the newspapers of this city to publish the text of the address of the lower house of Parliament to the country, which the government has decided to regard as being beyond the province of Parliament.

The resentment occasioned by the wholesale suppression of newspapers and the closing of their printing establishments led to disorder this evening. A large crowd stoned the mounted police in the vicinity of the Stosnossensky prospect and some stones also were thrown at a small detachment of cavalry. Other parties of cavalry soon arrived from all directions. The attitude of the crowd was menacing and the cavalry twice fired volleys of blank cartridges before the mob dispersed. As M. Solomka, the chief editor of the Misla is a member of Parliament, M. Moroumtseff and Prince Shakoffskoi, respectively President and Secretary of the lower house, immediately communicated with the prefect of police and demanded and received assurances that M. Solomka should not be arrested. A demonstration occurred when the police appeared to seal the printing establishment of the Misla in the Stosnosensky prospect in the heart of St. Petersburg. The stone throwers escaped over bridges.

At a late hour to-night knots of people, after the police patrols had passed, sang the "Marseillaise."

So far as known the disorders resulted in no casualties.

Repressive Measures.

Odessa, Russia, July 20.—Governor General Kaulbars has issued an order that all striking workmen in the city must resume work by July 23 without fail, otherwise they and all those who support them will be sent into exile by administrative order, and every attempt to prolong strikes will be mercilessly crushed by force of arms.

The strikers are incensed by the order, which, it is feared, may provoke outbreaks.

The strikers will resume work tomorrow. Fearing bloodshed in consequence of the Governor General's order the employes to-day came to an agreement with the workmen, accepting most of the latter's demands.

Incendiaries Lynched.

Samara, July 20.—The latest news from Syzran is that the city is a heap of ruins. Hundreds of persons lost their lives in the flames and several men suspected of incendiarism were lynched. Food for the starving inhabitants of Syzran is being sent from here and from Saratov. It is reported that 4,000 houses have been burned.
